WINNERS: Troy Dennegehy and Vivian John at Wembley.

Money-saving duo win bank's challenge

A TEAM of youngsters from Barking were crowned winners of a money-saving competition at Wembley Stadium last Friday.

The competition, called the Money for Life challenge, was designed by Lloyds TSB to help youngsters improve their money management skills.

Team members Vivian John and Troy Dennegehy both live at the Barking and Dagenham Foyer, in Waking Road.

The Foyer provides supported accommodation to youngsters aged 16 to 24 at risk of being homeless.

The lads won the challenge thanks to their innovative buffet on a budget concept for a group of 40 people for £1.50 a head.

Vivian, 23, said: "We wanted to cater for 40 of our fellow foyer residents on a tight budget so we had to learn how to use the cost saving methods that were taught.

"We now realise that there are a lot of places to get good deals, by using coupons and buying buy one get one free items."

FREE RAIL TRAVEL INITIATIVE LAUNCHED FOR JOBSEEKERS

A TRAVEL scheme aimed at helping people back to work was launched on Friday.

Barking MP, Margaret Hodge joined c2c managing director Julian Drury at Barking Station to launch the train firm's JobStart scheme.

The initiative offers free rail travel on c2c trains to job interviews organised through the Job Centre, and two months free rail travel when a person gets their first job.

The offer is for up to six free tickets to and from interviews, and then up to two months free season ticket once a job is secured.

Mrs Hodge said: "This is a great idea. Travelling to job interviews and having to find the money for train fares before you have received your first pay cheque can be a challenge, especially if you have been out of work for some time. This is a good idea and I look forward to seeing people from Barking benefiting from it."

The scheme is open to people on Jobseeker's Allowance attending interviews arranged through the Job Centre Plus.

There is a travel to work ticket for the first two months for anyone with a contract of six months or more.

Mr Drury said: "There is a £10 one-off administration fee for the monthly season tickets, although of course the savings are considerably higher. c2c is only able to cover travel on our services, not London Underground."

Competition winning DJ entertains crowds

A DJ entertained shoppers in Dagenham on Saturday with his creative skills.

DJ Lox had entered a competition run by Waltham Forest community radio, Streetlife, and the Dagenham branch of Cash Generators.

Streetlife Radio said it prides itself on providing a platform for new musical and artistic talent, and was looking for a budding DJ.

Both organisations said DJ Lox's demo, which featured some of his favourite house tracks, really stood out.

In addition to the exclusive performance in store, DJ Lox won £250 worth of DJ equipment including turntables, mixer and microphone.

He said: "I entered Sound of the Underground competition as it was a great platform to promote my DJing skills. It was fun to do and I'm thrilled to have won. The gig at the Cash Generator store in Dagenham was fantastic."

A TOTAL of 40 people took to the street and raised £60,000 for one of the area's best loved charities.

People entered the London Marathon last Sunday, April 22, for St Francis Hospice, in Havering-atte-Bower. They included Gill Hagan, who comes from Ingatstone and works for Queen's Hospital, in Romford. She ran dressed as a penguin and finished in seven hours.

She was running in memory of her father, Terry, who was treated by the hospice's nurses at home before his death in 2001. She said: "The crowd were brilliant, and when it got tough I thought about the reason I was doing it, for my Dad and for the hospice."

Man's hand hacked at in attack

POLICE in Ilford are appealing for witnesses after a man had his hand hacked at with a 12-inch knife by robbers trying to steal his suitcase.

The 27-year-old victim, was walking in Riverdene Road near the junction with Britannia Road, Ilford, at about 10.25pm on Tuesday, April 10 when he was set upon by three men.

Police said they beat him to the floor, constantly trying to grab the purple suitcase he was holding.

One produced a 12-inch knife and began hacking at the victim's wrist.

They eventually got away with the bag but discarded it nearby. Nothing was stolen.

The three suspects are believed to have got into a white vehicle, which drove off along Britannia Road or Riverdene Road away from Roden Street.

Police said they are looking for three Asian men, all aged between 25-30 and all around 5ft 8ins.

The victim suffered extensive wounds to his arm, wrist and hand.

He was taken to hospital for treatment, later undergoing surgery at a specialist unit.

Police said they could not reveal the identity of the victim or the content of the suitcase, because the victim needed to be protected.

WITNESS APPEAL: Do you know these men?

Investigating officer PC Paul Fuller, from Ilford robbery squad, said: "This was a vicious attack by a group of suspects who, in their efforts to steal the suitcase, caused considerable injury to the victim."

"Doctors initially believed the victim may not fully recover all the function in his hand."

"Fortunately he's been extremely lucky and is making great progress but it will be some months before he is back to normal."

Young athlete stars in advert

A BUDDING heptathlete from Newham has been selected to take part in an Adidas advertising campaign.

Emma is one of 32 outstanding talents chosen from across London to be selected for the 60-second advert for the sportswear firm's 'take the stage' campaign ahead on the Olympic Games.

The initiative aims to 'identify, nurture and celebrate' the abilities of the young achievers.

Each story has been documented into a short film which is available to view at www.adidas.com/all2012 as well as bus stop and billboard advertising.

As part of the campaign, Emma was given the chance to train with top track and field athletes, Chris Tomlinson and Goldie Sayers.

Emma said: "Both athletes said that I was good at their event which made my heart go all warm and bubbly!"

"It made me feel good about myself and that I've achieved something."

"I had the chance to really scrutinise two areas that I compete in and I got some invaluable advice from two of this country's best athletes."

"I feel more confident now that I can push on and hopefully one day I'll be lining up at the Olympic Games, representing my country."

She had been walking in the park when two men approached and started talking to her. She did not respond and walked away from the pair, who ran up and punched and kicked her.

The pair ran off through the Abbots Park Road exit towards Skeltons Lane.

Mayoral candidates call for air inquiry

By Peter Henn

MAYORAL candidates are supporting calls for a public inquiry into air quality and air pollution in London.

More than 4,000 people die every year because of pollution in the capital, according to official figures.

However, successive governments have been accused of ignoring the issue.

The government has also made use of a loophole in the law, which allows it to exceed European-set limits without being fined.

The call for an inquiry was made by the 'Cabbies Against Boris' action group, which has said the Mayor's strategy for air pollution was not effective.

Green candidate Jenny Jones supported the call for the inquiry, saying it was time for something to be done. She said: "Air pollution is the second biggest killer in the capital, and it's rapidly becoming the number one health issue for Londoners."

"We simply cannot go on as we are."

The Liberal Democrats' Brian Paddick has supported an inquiry, but has demanded more is done sooner to clean up the air.

He said: "We can't really afford to wait for the outcome of a lengthy inquiry."

"It is a scandal that 4,000 people a year in London die from the effects of poor air quality and we will keep on campaigning to ensure that this topic remain on the top of all politicians' agendas so that real action is taken now, not just the ineffective and temporary measures that Transport for London (TfL) are trialling at the moment."

Labour's Ken Livingstone said it was 'absolutely right' that an inquiry was called.

The former Mayor said: "The thousands of children growing up with asthma need a Mayor who takes air pollution seriously."

Mr Livingstone has previously admitted that he could have done more to cut emissions during his eight years as mayor.

The Clean Air in London campaign group welcomed the calls for the inquiry. Director Simon Birkett said: "Clean Air in London enthusiastically supports the call for an inquiry to build public understanding of the dangers of air pollution with advice for people on protecting themselves and reducing pollution."

"However, it is vital there is no let up in the pressure on Boris Johnson and the Government to act immediately to reduce pollution levels that are the highest of any capital city in Europe."

Independent Candidate

Siobhan Benita confirmed she also supported an inquiry.

Seven sites in London have been found to exceed yearly limit rates for deadly Nitrogen Oxide (NOx) particles, with three of them exceeding hourly limits.

The Mayor's office has blamed wind blowing pollution from the Continent – a claim which the EU has rubbished.

A spokesman for Transport for London said the organisation was 'committed' to improving the capital's air quality.

A spokesman said: A number of city-wide and longer term initiatives have already been introduced in the capital this year to drive down pollution, such as introducing low emission vehicles, using cleaner buses, banning the most polluting taxis and tightening the Low Emission Zone standards.

"TfL has also introduced a number of targeted measures at key locations across the capital to reduce PM10 and included a green wall at Edgware Road Tube station, the application of dust suppressants, a no engine idling campaign and taxi marshalling."

Boris Johnson has said he will not support an inquiry if re-elected. A spokesman for his campaign said: "We have a strategy and a clean air fund."

CAMPAIGN: Chaseview's Sandy Somerville (centre), Bupa's community and partnership manager, Siobhan Drane and RSPB's project manager Gabrielle Layzell.

Save the sparrow

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help local care homes save the much loved bird – the sparrow. Research by the RSPB shows numbers of the tiny brown bird have dropped by 55 per cent since 1979.

As a result of a rapid decline in numbers in recent years, the UK house sparrow is afforded the highest conservation status.

Elderly residents at Harts House nursing home, in Woodford Green, and Gable Lodge residential home in Loughton, are creating sparrow friendly gardens to help reverse the sparrow's decline.

The project is being backed by the RSPB, who are linking up with care homes across the UK to give support and advice about the best ways to create wildlife havens for species that are currently in decline.

Gabrielle Layzell, RSPB's project manager: "Although house sparrows are still seen in many gardens, their numbers have dropped significantly, which we believe is because there is simply less wild space and food available in gardens.

"We've already had some great feedback from care homes about their plans to encourage more wildlife into gardens."

Altogether, about 300 care homes across the UK are taking part in the save the sparrow campaign.

For information regarding wildlife week, which starts on Monday, call 0845 600 4622.

College students start health campaign

TRAINEE care workers at Newham College have started their own health campaign.

The 20 health and social care students are working on a 'NewYear NewMe' programme of health eating, exercise and sports.

They hope that their experience will inspire them to actively promote their future clients' health and fitness.

Lecturer Edith Stokes said: "Our experience is that developing your physical fitness can improve your whole outlook on life. Care workers are in a great position to use fitness and health to help their clients."

"We've organised a programme of healthy activities for our students on top of their ordinary studies that will inspire them not only to change their lives but also change other people's lives."

"Experience of hardships has spurred on some of our students to gain more control over their lives. They see training and education as a way to improve their employment outlook and physical fitness as a way to improve their personal outlook."

The programme is the first of its type in the college and includes classes in diet, circuit training and sports such as netball, basketball, and swimming.

The college's catering service provides the diet classes and its extra-curricular sports department delivers the sports and exercise.

Nanybai Said, 22, from East Ham, believes the programme will help her when she becomes a nurse.

She said: "I think too many people are unhealthy. I definitely would pass on what I know to other people and also to my family and friends. They are surprised to see me not eating junk food and they do listen to me."

"I have more energy and I feel happier. I have headaches and dizziness but I've had fewer since the programme."

HEALTHY LIVING: Staff and students get active.

Crippling pain could not stop Nicholas

A SIXTH form pupil who raised £3,000 for a children's hospice by running the London Marathon said he cannot wait to do it again – despite crippling pain.

Nicholas Osborn, 18, from Chigwell, carried on regardless, despite the agony he suffered from an old knee injury.

He said: "My family and the crowds were urging me on in spite of my aching muscles which became unbearable at around 18 miles.

"I would certainly do it again, the journey of training and the climax of it all on race day was a unique experience which shaped me hugely.

"I can't wait to put the running shoes back on!"

Chigwell School

pupil Nicholas crossed the finishing line in The Mall on Sunday in 5hrs 18mins despite still recovering from a sport-related injury.

Nicholas decided to run for Havens Hospices to thank staff for the care it is providing for his cousin, Laurel, who has a genetic disease.

He added: "I wanted to run to celebrate the great life Laurel has had and raise money for the place that cares for her so well.

"The day was an absolutely fantastic experience. I ran it with my uncle who was an unbelievable help at crucial times.

"What struck me most was the support the crowd offered."

TROOPER: Nicholas Osborn during the London Marathon.

Kind hearted shoppers raise cash for charity

KIND hearted South Woodford shoppers have raised hundreds of pounds for charity.

The customers visiting Waitrose decided they wanted the store to donate money to St Clare's hospice.

Each month the store selects three charities, and customers are given a green token at the tills and can choose which of three charities to support by throwing their token into the relevant bin.

St Clare's received the highest share of the £1,000 funding available.

Dave Bishop, the hospice's community fundraiser, said: "Every penny counts when it comes to raising the money needed to help us provide our services and so I would also like to thank the many customers who dropped their green token into the St Clare bin when shopping last month which resulted in us receiving such a fantastic amount of money."

motoring news

Economic driving

AS CERTAIN as the sun will rise tomorrow, petrol prices won't ever see the £3 gallon again. So the economy-minded motorist has two avenues to explore: seek out the most fuel-efficient cars and learn to drive more efficiently to save money and the environment. But how? Martin Holzhofer, the man in charge of General Motors European ECO model programme, offers these top practical hints to wallet-friendly motoring.

Reap the benefit

Regular routine maintenance is essential. It is also important to check the tyre pressure because low-pressure causes increased rolling resistance and costs more money in two areas - in fuel and tyre wear.

Those who are determined to get the maximum fuel economy may choose to inflate the tyres up to one or two tenths of a decimal point above the specified pressure in bar. Another useful tip is not to carry unnecessary ballast around in the boot. A 100-kilogram load can result in increased fuel consumption by more than five mpg in town driving.

For further fuel-saving success, don't leave the roof rack on when you don't need it.

Turning off electrical accessories like air conditioning, rear window demister or additional lights also results in fuel saving, because they all use some fuel in their operation.

Look ahead

While on the move, the golden rule is to look well ahead and maintain steady speeds. Unnecessary accelerating and braking not only costs fuel but frayed nerves as well. Accelerate briskly but not aggressively: it's better to press the accelerator pedal down further in a higher gear than to run the engine up to high revs. Shift up to top gear as soon as you can. Drive in fifth gear from around 30 mph and keep to low revs (between 2000 and 3000 rpm) whenever possible.

Switch off the engine for stops of one minute or longer. The engine burns fuel even while idling. The automatic fuel intake shut-down while coasting, while driving down a hill or while braking, provides another means of saving fuel. So don't use the accelerator while coasting and don't take the vehicle out of gear.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'IT' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing material. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Weather fails to dampen Crossman

Motorcycling

A MOTORCYCLE racer braved the elements to continue his championship battle in the Classic Superbikes class.

Romford's Wayne Crossman headed to Snetterton in Norfolk for the latest rounds of the Hottrax Motorsport series.

Heavy rain drenched the circuit over the weekend of April 21/22, meaning it was going to be a tough task for Crossman to defend his lead in the Classic Superbike class.

In the first two races, Crossman picked up a fourth and a third, but was unable to start the third race due to a hole in the radiator on his MV Augusta. He ended the day second in the championship.

on a Suzuki GSXR 600, Crossman raced solidly to pick up four top ten finishes, the best a seventh in the third race, moving up to 10th in the standings.

Crossman said: "It was a difficult weekend with the weather, and in one race I went out on track on 'wets' only to find the majority of the track had a dry race line.

"I came into the pits for my bike on dry slick tyres, but this meant I started from the pit lane on cold tyres. So 33rd place with loads of work to do in a 10 lap race. I came ninth picking up the fourth fastest lap along the way.

"All credit and my thanks go to Ian Stokes and my pit crew from IP Performance Motorcycles, their bike preparation is second to none and I couldn't race without their support. I'd also like to thank my sponsors Predator IT and MJW Digital Art for their continued support."

The next event sees Wayne travelling to Anglesey in Wales on June 2/3.

West Ham United

Big Sam looks for play-off success

WEST Ham United boss Sam Allardyce is eyeing play-off success after his side missed out on automatic promotion from the Championship on Saturday.

Southampton's 4-0 win over Coventry ensured the Irons had to settle for a play-off spot despite beating Hull City 2-1 at Upton Park.

A double from Carlton Cole helped the Hammers on their way with Corry Evans netting a late consolation for the Tigers.

The Irons will now face Cardiff City in the play-off semi-finals, with the first leg at Cardiff tomorrow (Thursday) and the second leg at Upton Park on Monday.

Allardyce said: "I stuck my neck out when I arrived and said we wanted promotion in the first season. I've got a two-year contract but doing it in the first season is important. We still have three games to win, and we will do it.

"We've had a very good season considering where we've come from. In the last few years 86 points has been enough.

"Our ultimate goal was not achieved, we left ourselves too much to do, but we'll wake up tomorrow morning and look forward to preparing for the play-offs."

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers lose to promoted Shrews

DAGENHAM & Redbridge failed to spoil Shrewsbury Town's promotion party in League Two, losing 1-0 on Saturday.

The Shrews booked their place in the third tier of English football after 15 years thanks to James Collins' header in the 38th minute.

But the Daggers, who secured League football the previous weekend, made it a difficult afternoon for the majority in Greenhous Meadow.

Boss John Still said: "It was a disappointing result but the performance was good. I thought we pushed them all the way and Chris Lewington, our keeper, wasn't really flying around his goal.

"For what Shrewsbury were playing for, they might have been a bit edgy and I thought we started well. They scored their goal without us being under any pressure but late in the game we pushed them right back and I thought we put in a good performance against a very good team."

Leyton Orient

O's stay up

LEYTON Orient ensured League One safety despite losing 2-1 at Hartlepool United on Saturday.

With their nearest rivals all slipping up, the defeat was academic.

Pools, with a similarly poor home record as their visitors, wrapped the points up with strikes from Anthony Sweeney and Ryan Noble, while Jamal Campbell-Ryce levelled for Orient.

Relieved Orient boss, Russell Slade, said: "I don't want congratulating. But, it has been a very tough season for us."

Top scorer, Kevin Lisbie, said: "I am just relieved. I have barely slept for a month with worry about staying up. This is the division we want to be in and we don't want to be going to places like Crawley and Fleetwood next season.

"We would rather be going to Coventry and Portsmouth as this is a big division.

Hockey club scoops two awards

Hockey

WALTHAM Forest Hockey Club were celebrating last Friday after coming away with two awards in the Proactive London's Sport and Physical Activity Awards.

The club, based in Coppermill Lane, Walthamstow, cleared up with five nominations, three shortlisted places as well as Club of the Year and Inclusive Ambassador awards.

The event, at the Kia Oval, celebrates the successes over year of sport in London in the build up to the Olympics in July, with more than 550 nominations and various Olympians on hand to give out the awards.

Waltham Forest Hockey Club were recognised for their work in running local community workshops for Waltham Forest Council, the Tottenham Hotspurs Foundation and BBC London to promote the sport.

This runs alongside internal schemes the club has held with adult beginner courses, the launch of a pan-disability section, Forest Flyerz, and seeing their youth section grow to more than 130 children.

Youth co-ordinator, Matt

Lovell, said: "It's just amazing to see that so many people across London are doing to inspire the next generation to participate in sport. This simply inspires us to push on as a club and ensure we are doing everything possible on the back of the Olympics to reach out to the local community."

Alongside the overall club award, Pani Theodorou, the club's Forest Flyerz co-ordinator, won Active and Inclusive Ambassador for her efforts in setting up the first Pan-Disability section in the South of England and bringing in more than 20 volunteers from the local community to ensure that the sessions run successfully.

City miss out on play-off place

Non League Football

CHELMSFORD City missed out on the Blue Square South play-offs on Saturday, losing 3-2 at home to champions Woking.

Jack King (10) fired the Cards ahead but Cliff Akurang (16) and Jamie Slabber (42) gave the Clarets a narrow lead.

However, Giuseppe Sole equalised before half-time and Kieran Murtagh fired in the winner on the hour mark.

With Basingstoke Town's late charge, the Clarets found themselves four points adrift despite occupying a play-off spot for the majority of the season.

Thurrock finished bottom and ended the season in disappointment losing 2-0 to fellow relegated side Hampton & Richmond Borough at Ship Lane.

Billy Jeffreys (40) and Charlie Moore (50) were on the scoresheet for the visitors.

Ryman League Premier champions Billericay Town picked up their trophy in front of a bumper crowd of 1,145 at New Lodge, despite losing their final match 4-1 to play-off contenders Lowestoft Town.

Michael Frew put the Trawlerboys ahead only for Dale Cockrill's own goal to level it. Lubo Guentchev's long-range shot restored Lowestoft's advantage before the half-hour, Cockrill made it 3-1 and Frew got his second.

AFC Hornchurch finished above Lowestoft in second with a 2-1 win over relegated Leatherhead.

Carl Rook (19) put Urchins ahead in his first start but Greg Andrews equalised before half-time.

Leon McKenzie restored Hornchurch's lead after the restart and it proved to be the winner. The Urchins were due to hold their play-off semi-final against Bury Town yesterday (Wednesday).

Canvey Island did all they could to make the play-offs, winning 5-0 over Margate, but it was not enough as they finished in eighth, four points off.

Kevin Dobinson, Rob King and Jason Hallett made it 3-0 before half-time, with Dobinson scoring again (73) and Steve Sheehan completing the rout.

East Thurrock United ended their season with a top ten finish thanks to their 5-2 win at Kingstonian.

After Bobby Traynor had put K's ahead, Sam Higgins scored two before the break and Ben Wood and Kye Ruel made it 4-1 soon after.

Traynor reduced the arrears but Higgins made sure of his hat-trick late on.

Concord Rangers' season tailed off with a 3-1 defeat against Wealdstone. Alex Dyer put Stones ahead after 25 seconds with Steve King (11) levelling for the Beachboys. But Richard Jolly and Scott Fitzgerald made sure of the win for Wealdstone.

Relegated Aveley's season ended in a thrashing, losing 7-1 to Hendon. Greg Ngoyi (36) put Hendon ahead, and the floodgates opened in the second half as Scott Shulton (50) scored a penalty, Isaiah Rankin fired a seven-minute hat-trick and Elliott Charles made it 6-0 by the midway point.

Kayan Kalipha missed a penalty but Liam Thomas did pull a goal back for the Millers before Elliott Godfrey made it seven.

In Ryman League Division One North, Tilbury secured third spot and a semi-final home tie thanks to their 4-3 win at Thamesmead Town. Tom Wright and Gary Henty put Dockers ahead before half-time after Rikki Cable gave the hosts the lead after 30 seconds.

Cable completed his hat-trick six minutes after the break but Tilbury fought back to take the win through Aaron Matthews and Paul King.

They will host Needham Market, while Grays will have to travel to either Enfield Town.

Both sides met in their final league match on Saturday where Grays lost 3-0 at home. Bradley Thomas was sent off for the Blues in the 52nd minute with Liam Hope converting the resulting penalty.

Further goals from Tyler Campbell and Walid Matata ensured Grays had to settle for fifth.

The relegation battle is also yet to be decided as Ware's home game against Waltham Forest was called off.

They have Ilford in their sights after they lost 2-1 at home to Harlow Town. Danny Elmes and an own goal by Gbenga Sonuga before half-time put Harlow ahead with Abdul Jeetoo's reply in the 87th minute not enough.

Ilford are three points clear of Ware who had to win by three clear goals last night (Wednesday).

Already relegated Great Wakering beat Romford 2-0 thanks to goals from Ashley Hawkins and Dan Trenkel.

Brentwood Town won 2-1 at Needham Market. Martyn Stokes and Abs Seymour put Town ahead with Bradley Barber (pen 83) pulling goal back for the hosts.

Luke Callander scored a hat-trick in Heybridge Swifts' 4-1 victory at Sudbury while Adam Flanagan and a Sos Yao penalty earned Maldon & Tiptree a 2-1 home win over Soham Town Rangers.
